Officers and Enlisted Men Get Nothing During Absence Due to Intoxication.

NEW RULE OF ARMY

In the future officers and enlisted men n the army who are absent from duty on account of disability resulting from drunkenness or any form of dissipation will forfeit their pay for the period of such absence. That disciplinary measure is specially provided for in the army appropriation bill passed at the latest ession of Congress.

Offenders will be reached by notations which will be made in the daily sick report whether disability results from activity in line of duty or otherwise. These entries are to be made by company commanders and surgeons. When the findings of those officers are in accord and receive the approval of the commanding officer they are to be final.

Pay Held Pending Inquiry.

If it is impracticable to determine in the month in which absence from duty occurs that such absence was due to causes which should deprive the soldier of his pay, he will not be permitted to draw pay for that or any subsequent month until the cause of the absence from duty has been determined.

In the case of a company commander or of an officer or enlisted man not carduties hereinbefore required of the company commander will be performed by the mand or direction the officer or enlisted man concerned may be serving.
